

Financing issues in setting the airport charges at Dublin Airport

Date: 2005

Client: Commission for Aviation Regulation

Country / Region: Ireland

CEPA advised the Commission in weighing up the importance of financial robustness, as evidenced by a strong credit rating, with other factors in setting the airport charges at Dublin Airport.

Work included a review of regulatory and financing precedents for other airports and privately financed infrastructure.

Links:

- Commission for Aviation Regulation